Illuminated Letter Rubric and Reflection

0-69 Needs Work	70-82 Below Basic	83-89 Basic	90-97 Proficient	98-100 Advanced
Did not complete half of the project or seriously incomplete, did not follow directions, drawings are unrecognizable, technique and application of color, lines, and value is careless, sloppy, and scribbled. Used 50% or less of studio time to complete. Work shows lack of interest, care, and effort.	At least half of the project is done but overall the work is incomplete, used about 85% or less of studio time to complete, shows attention to directions but drawings are chopped or small, lines are mostly wobbly, color and value application is mostly uneven and unclear. No evidence of treating the artwork as a whole piece.	Completed project, mostly follows directions, drawings are somewhat loose and wobbly, color and value application shows understanding but has areas that are patchy, uneven, or lacking in control. Project needs more attention to raise the bar. Overall decision making lacks unity as a whole.	Complete project and on time, all directions are followed. Uses 90% of studio time to complete project. Color is mostly solid, values are mostly clear, lines are mostly controlled, and drawing is mostly accurate. Could use more work and time to raise the quality. Decisions in the application of color, line patterns, and value maybe lacking overall unity as a whole piece.	Complete project and on time, all directions are followed. Uses all of the studio time to complete with great craftsmanship. Color is solid and evenly filled, values are distinct and clear, lines are smooth and controlled, drawing is clear and accurate. Decisions with color, value, and line show unity as a whole artwork.

- 1. How did you communicate something about yourself in your illuminated letter? What visual clues did you leave?
- 2. Describe two different designs you added into your work (patters, texture, animals, objects, etc.)
- 3. An illuminated letter begins the first word of the first sentence of a text. Your illuminated letter begins part of your name. Write the first sentence of the text of your life that your illuminated letter would be used for.
